

FRIENDS OF OLD HEADINGTON

WINTER MEETINGS:

- 2011 Early Children's Books: An Illustrated History - Clive Hurst, Head of Rare Books and Ephemera at the Bodleian Library.
- 2010 Re-development of the Ashmolean Museum – Henry Kim, Project Director for the re-development, and a resident of Old Headington
- 2009 Masks of Power: A review of some Oxford educated Prime Ministers since World War II – David Marquand, Retired Principal of Mansfield College, Oxford, and a resident of Old Headington
- 2008 Dilemmas in Doing Good – Dame Barbara Stocking, Chief Executive of Oxfam GB, and a resident of Old Headington
- 2007 Geology of Oxfordshire and Headington Stone – Philip Powell,
- 2006 Headington in Literature – Sir Anthony Kenny, Retired Master of Balliol College, Oxford and later Warden of Rhodes House, Oxford
- 2005 Growing Old in Headington – Brian Aldiss OBE – a long time resident of Old Headington and a prolific author of science fiction
- 2004 Looking back over 28 years in Oxford, 1972-2000 – John Ashdown, formerly Conservation Officer for Oxford City Council
- 2003 Talk on Bats by David Endacott, Chairman of the Oxfordshire Bat Group
- 2002 Talk by John Prestwich on the contribution of Bletchley Park's ultra intelligence in the war against Germany and about his experiences there. Mr Prestwich was a resident of Old Headington, and sadly died early in 2003
- 2001 Taking Care of the Heritage Beneath our Feet: Traditional Paving and what it can tell us about our historical environment – Richard Guise, University of the West of England
- 2000 Traditional Crafts and Industrie – David Eddershaw
- 1999 Natural Habitats and Species in the Oxford Green Belt – Craig Blackwell, County Ecologist for Oxfordshire